The First National Conference

“Methodology for TEFL: Best Practices”

November 8th , 2021

(Virtually)

Presentation

To promote scholarly conversation among TEFL practitioners, researchers, material writers, curriculum developers, and policy makers, the department of English of the Teacher Training College of Bouzareah will host its first online national conference “Methodology for TEFL: Best Practices” on the 8th of November , 2021.

The conference seeks to discuss the theoretical and practical aspects of teaching TEFL and to promote the idea that for improving the quality of the teaching and learning process and facing the challenges of the 21st century, English teachers will need to revisit their EFL practices at curricular, pedagogical and assessment levels.

Issues

The scientific and organizing committees welcomed original research papers and classroom ‘best practices’ addressing issues that include, but are not limited, the following strands:

1. Methodologies, Approaches and Learning Styles.
2. Language Needs Analysis
3. Classroom Practice.
4. Language Classroom Management.
5. Policy Development and Action.
6. Curriculum Design and Issues.
7. Language Materials Development.
